"Remembering Edward Abbey: His Legacy and Relevance Today" 25th anniversary of Ed Abbey's journey home

WRENCHED explores how Edward Abbey lit the flame of environmental activism and gave the movement its soul. The film captures the passing of the monkey wrench from the pioneers of eco-activism to a new generation which will carry Abbey's legacy into the 21st century as the fight to sustain the last bastions of the American wilderness continues.

**Post-film discussion with ML Lincoln, and activists and friends of Edward Abbey: Ken Sleight, Ken Sanders, John Weisheit, and more tba. Bob Lippman, attorney, activist & friend of Abbey will moderate.

Presented in partnership with Living Rivers, Center for Biological Diversity, and Back of Beyond Books.

Screening is free and open to public on a first-come first-served basis.
